Postmaster General Burleson has issued a leter to the depositors of postal savings telling them that if application is made before June 2 next they may exchange the whole or a part of their reposits for United States registered or coupon bonds in denominations of $20. $100, and $500, bearing interest from July 1. 1912. at the rate of 2½ per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after one year from the date of issue, both principal and interest payable twenty years from the date in United States gold coin.

Postal savings bonds are exempt from all taxes or duties of the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, municipal, or local authority.

Postal savings deposits converted into honds are got to counted as a part.

Postal savings deposits converted into bonds are not counted as a part of the maximum of $500 allowed one depositor, and there is no limitation on the amount of available postal savings bonds which may be acquired finally by a depositor. Postal savings bonds can be pro-cured only by the conversion of pos-tal savings deposits and will not be
